From the Desk of Brother Jeffrey R. Miller

District Deputy Grand Master, Third Masonic District

Fraternal Greetings Brethren!

November is a month of giving thanks! We as Freemasons need to remember our departed Brethren and their widows. They supported their spouses as they practiced the Craft. There were many evenings they remained home while their husbands attended Lodge. We as Freemasons should not forget the sacrifice they made. A short phone call from the Lodge would show that we care for them and demonstrate respect for their departed husband, our Brother. Better yet deliver a fruit basket or some flowers to brighten their day.

Saint John's Day next is rapidly approaching. The incoming Worshipful Masters are getting ready to start an exciting year in their lives. Being a Worshipful Master of a Lodge, especially in District 3 is one of the most rewarding experiences in a man's life. Each incoming Worshipful Master has put together his plan for his term and how he is going to execute this plan. When they leave the East, their name will be listed among the Worshipful Masters that have went before them as part of the Lodge history. The Lodge will be better for having them as Worshipful Master!

Be safe as you travel to your various activities and functions. Have an excellent Thanksgiving! I will see you soon along the Freemasonry trail.

Have a great day in Freemasonry!

Brother Jeffrey R. Miller
District Deputy Grand Master

From the Desk of Brother Kenneth W. Womack, P.M.

Principal, Third Masonic District School of Instruction

Brethren,

We are rapidly moving toward the end of the 2025 Masonic year and all the things that have to be done associated with that. Among these, DDGM Jeffrey R. Miller is requiring all Lodges to do the election of officers for Masonic year 2026 in November and to do it using the ballot box. In addition, per a December 28, 2023 edict by the Right Worshipful Grand Master, all Blue Lodges must conduct open installation ceremonies for Masonic Years 2026, “subject to all the rules and protocols as established by the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania and defined by the Director of the Ritualistic Work and taught by the Schools of Instruction.”

At the District 3 SOI on October 27, Orrstown Lodge No. 262 presented an excellent exemplification for “Election of Officers” using the ballot box, found in the current ritual book on pages 85-90. This exemplification included modifications to this ritual, which permit the use of a single table of tellers with ballots for all officer positions. If a representative of your Lodge was unable to attend this SOI session, I recommend you contact one of the SOI Principals to attend your Lodge November rehearsal, so you are prepared to do the election of officers using the approved procedure.

At the November SOI on November 23, Mt. Pisgah Lodge No. 443 will cover the Open Installation for Lodge Officers in detail. Brother Paul A. Sutcliffe, Jr., Ritualistic Instructor, Region 2 will be in attendance for this SOI. If your Lodge would like to have a principal attend your November rehearsal, please let one of the principals know and we will make every effort to attend.

Worshipful Masters are reminded again that for the remainder of this Masonic year, someone other than the WM should present the opening and closing charges at the stated meeting. Any elected or appointed officer (other than a past master) may do this.

Brethren, I look forward to seeing you at our next SOI on Monday, November 24.

Sincerely & fraternally,
Brother Kenneth W. Womack
Principal, District 3 SOI

A Series In Masonic Education

The Guide

The Guide is responsible for helping a new member (candidate) navigate his journey through Freemasonry, focusing on his personal and educational development rather than just the ritual work. The Guide's duties include counseling the candidate before and after each degree, explaining the symbolic meaning and philosophy of the fraternity, and ensuring the candidate understands the lessons and traditions of Masonry. The Guide also helps the candidate prepare for any necessary examinations to advance in the degrees.

Responsibilities of a Masonic Candidate Guide

- Provide guidance and counseling: A Candidate Counselor serves as a point of contact to advise the candidate on their Masonic experience.
- Explain Masonic teachings: The Guide helps explain the symbolic importance of the degrees and other teachings to the candidate.
- Assist with ritual work: In some cases, the Guide works with the candidate to prepare for examinations, though the specific ritual instruction is typically handled by a ritual coach.
- Explain history and philosophy: The Guide educates the candidate on the history and philosophy of the fraternity.
- Serve as a friend and advisor: The Guide's role is to be a supportive and trusted resource for the new Mason.

Duties of other officers and members

- Lodge Education Officer: Oversees the candidate's education program, assigns instructors, and monitors the quality of instruction.
- Instructors: Teach the candidate the ritual work required for each degree and provide instruction on its meaning and application.
- Ritual Coach: Instructs the candidate on the necessary ritual examinations to advance to the next degree.

Ladies Night: July 12, 2025

Greetings from the East,

I mentioned in last month's entry how glorious it was to have college football back in its full sway, along with a parenthetical cheer for my alma mater's Nittany Lions. Please take care not to remind this Worshipful Master how the Nittany Lions' season is going. As far as he is concerned, college football has never existed. Nope. Never heard of it. Despite the agony of being a hopeless sports fan, I reflect that this is nonetheless my favorite time of year. As autumn breezes work their way down the Cumberland Valley, bringing with them a sluice of flame-hued foliage, I am deeply thankful for the blessings of Freemasonry and the brotherhood we have shared thus far this year.

Our lodge spent a pleasant evening prior to our stated meeting on October 21 sharing stories of Carlisle's Masonic past through the lens of some of our historical artifacts and documents. By far my favorite item I was able to share with our Brethren was found in the record book of St. John's Lodge No. 260 (one of Carlisle No. 260's two predecessor lodges). In the elegant script of the lodge secretary was one single line in the summer of 1863, during the Confederate incursion into the Keystone State: "No Meeting was held on the 19th of Jun, the Town being Invaded by the Rebels."

Tuesday, November 18, 2025, Carlisle Lodge No. 260 will hold its stated meeting at our usual gathering place. At 6:30 PM, we will meet in the social hall for our annual recognition of the veterans of our lodge and our community. Our meal will be a traditional Thanksgiving-style feast. The meeting will follow, beginning promptly at 7:30 PM. Our extra meeting will be held the following night, Wednesday, November 19. Please join us that evening at 6:30 PM as we welcome two new candidates – Quinton C. DeBeer and Joseph C. Gudalis – into the ranks of Freemasonry.

Fraternally yours,

Greetings from the East,

November is here already and soon Thanksgiving and the Christmas Holiday will be upon us!

Our November meeting this year is going to be a little different than others. Being back in Orrstown, and back to a Moon Lodge schedule, means that our November stated meeting will be held October 30th. This is because the first full moon of November is the first Wednesday, backing our meeting up to the last Thursday in October. This will also occur a couple times in 2026. Orrstown Lodge will also be holding a community even on Friday, October 31st. See below for our Trunk-or-Treat being held in our parking lot.

The Jurisdictional Bethel will be having a fun filled weekend at Patton Campus on November 14-16. Jurisdictional Bethel Honored Queen Delany S. has been planning activities for the girls to enjoy throughout the Nashville Themed weekend.

Emma H. from Bethel 16, who is our very own PA Daughter HIKE Coordinator 2025 – 2026, has been busy planning a hike through the Elizabethtown Masonic Village on Saturday, November 15. The goal for this HIKE event is to raise money for children in need of hearing devises. Emma is also having turtle adoptions to raise money for HIKE. With each adoption you will receive a stuffed turtle and adoption certificate. Please consider a helping with this worth cause to benefit kids in need of hearing assisted devises.

Bethel 16 will be holding their installation of Bethel Officers at the end of November at the George Washington Lodge, Chambersburg. Miss Reagan S, daughter of Brother Jason and Sarah Stains, will be installed as Honored Queen. Please watch for more information at your local Lodge.
